FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BUCKLE DOWN PUBLISHING INTRODUCES TEST PREP MATERIALS FOR LOUISIANA'S STATE TESTING PROGRAM

Iowa City, IA, March 19, 2007 — Buckle Down Publishing, a national leader in state-specific test preparation and a Hights Cross Communications company, has introduced its new test-preparation line developed exclusively for the Louisiana state assessment program. This new Buckle Down Louisiana series, released for the 2006-2007 testing season, is 100% aligned with the Louisiana Subject Content Standards and provides students with targeted review for the Louisiana Educational Assessment Program (LEAP/iLEAP), and the Graduation Exit Exam (GEE).

The complete line of workbooks and practice tests features comprehensive review in all content areas tested by the LEAP, iLEAP, and GEE — English Language Arts, Mathematics, and Science.

Highlights of the new Buckle Down Louisiana series include:

- Two external practice tests and end-of-lesson practice sections matched to the LEAP/iLEAP/GEE in format and question types, building familiarity and reducing test anxiety.
- Louisiana-specific content to build on students' experiential base and reinforce learning.
- Appropriate page counts and uncluttered layouts to increase approachability for frustrated learners and build student confidence.

“We’re excited to bring Buckle Down’s state-specific test prep to the great state of Louisiana,” said Dr. Tom Emrick, Buckle Down Publishing’s President. “Using these focused review workbooks and practice tests, greater numbers of Louisiana school districts can meet their Average Yearly Progress goals, allowing them to improve their DLS labels from two- and three-star to four-star or even five. We’re proud to provide prep materials that deliver the extra advantage Louisiana students need to excel on test day.”

Buckle Down workbooks and practice tests are developed exclusively for classroom review in preparation for the Louisiana state testing program. For additional information, visit www.BuckleDown.com or call 800-776-3454 to reach Customer Service.
